"The Chief Edition"

Letters to Dr. Luke.

Dear Dr. Luke,

It has come to my attention that five million and a half people have decided to use the word that a friend and I started. Because of the fact that this word is so over used, I will not even mention it in this letter. This is why I write. I need to know a way to get people to STOP USING MY WORD! Can you help me?

-Speechless in the kitchen.

Dear Speechless,

The only way I can think of to get people to stop using your word is to make it uncool. Now that I think about it, this reminds me of another situation involving this thingi called a Toggle...whatever that is.

Mom is out...Ben is in.

In mom's small absence today, it was Medic Ben to the rescue saving not one but two participants from certain death. All should praise him and bow down.

Word of the day

Chief - a very over used word, started by deuce and now used by way, way too many massive tools.

Thought Provoking Things

Sports Report

The trestle race had two obvious victories. First, the Sea Monkey patrol from Troop 023 defeated all other troops with great ease. But the most obvious and evident victory was the staff stomping and schooling the participants. This victory was like that of Americans over the Chinese in Olympic basketball, like Sir Robin over the chicken, like Lewis over Tyson, like any team over the L.A. Clippers, or like everyone over France in the World Cup. The participants were out like a fat kid in dodge ball.

Message From Staff

Participants,

The staff would like to apologize for the stomping delivered during the trestle race. Although your performance was both sad and pathetic, we feel we treated you unfairly. The next competition will include water and breath breaks for your out of shape bodies.

Daily Reminder

Change your underwear. Ben Bly. Fear the Duff.

Note to self:

Remember to smile and nod in presence of the Duff.

Top Ten Things to do in the Kitchen

- 10) Make Food!
 - 9) Shave your head.
 - 8) "What's up chief?"
 - 7) MMX Technology
 - 6) Put mixer attachments on stove.
 - 5) Sleep in the Reefer
 - 4) Drive the Mixer.
 - 3) 10-codes and signals
 - 2) Hoard Food
- And the number one thing to do in the kitchen is.....
- 1) Simply put "BIG BERTHA"

Romantic Update:

It has just reached the newsroom desk here at the Stag that Big Bertha has broken off all contact with Dennis and Todd. And, through some "illegally placed cameras," we have learned that she actually said, "I Do," to Ben. In an interview with Dennis, he claimed that Ben was never happier.
