Quotable Quotes

"Freeze this is the staff, we have guns and stuff!"

"It cost how much!!"

"Sleep what's that?"

STAFF WINS AGAIN

There was another crushing defeat to the sad, sad, pathetic, out of shape "animals" that have no reason to be in the field of battle with the most power full staff in the world. This great showing of athletic ability is proof once again that staff always wins. And it is sad. NOT!!! Don't you wish you were us. The season veteran Luke Taylor had well over 40 pathetic "animals" lives in a span of 65 minutes. Luke is a hard worker and one of are most valuable staff members. can have their exercise.

The Paratroopers

Late last night when we all in bed, we received a disturbing call from the Airborne Rangers. They are having an assault force training exercise behind White Stag on Thursday night. During the exercise they will be using live fire. For our safety we must evacuate to prevent any harm due to stray rounds. For more details, ask your patrol leader.

G-Pa's Near Death Experience

Staff members run amuck

Grandpa Sparks had a brush with death last night. He was nearly killed by two rabid staff members during the Nature Game. Aaron Cole and Marc Chatot, in a brilliant attempt to do twice as much work bound themselves together. Grandpa narrowly escaped this rope that was his certain doom. Grandpa was released from Mom's care early this morning and she says "He will be fine." He has been traumatized for life though by this near fatal experience. Mrs. Cole also had a not so near experience with these two crazed staffers. She received a large helping of whipped cream. She was not too pleased with this show of affection. Aaron was quoted as saying "I love you mom" and the three of them had a group hug. She may still be harboring some ill feelings towards our beloved staff members. Watch out.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

We here at the Daily Stag would like to wish Ryan Thedwall a most Happy Birthday. We would also like to wish another staffer a very important staff member a Happy Birthday Steven West.

Note to self Fear the Duff

THE DOORS

Our most brilliant staff members on this mighty staff, the ASPLs, have mastered the art of door walking. The leader of this skilled group is the one and only Ben Bly. Last night the ASPL put on a most masterful performance where he walked the doors of BP Hall. (And we would like to start a New Door Fund because so many have been damaged by their faces.)
